

MP Indira Grah Jyoti Yojana

Madhya Pradesh govt. has changed the name of Indira Grah Jyoti Yojana (IGJY) to Atal Grah Jyoti Yojana (AGJY). Under this IGJY or AGJY scheme, government provides subsidy on electricity consumption to all households. In case the family consumes more than specified units in a month, then they will have to pay for the entire consumption at the existing rate. MP Indira Grah Jyoti Yojna / Atal Grah Jyoti Yojana would cost the state government around Rs. 2,581 crore.

The primary objective of Indira Grah Jyoti Scheme is to provide financial assistance to the citizens of the state specially belonging to poor families. MP Indira Grah Jyoti Yojana (IGJY) is going to reduce the burden of increasing electricity bills. Indira Grah Jyoti Scheme would also encourage people to save electricity and thus will reduce the overall power consumption.

Eligibility Criteria

- Only those people can take the benefit of this scheme who is a permanent resident of Madhya Pradesh.
- All the general power consumers who consume less than 100 units per month.
- Besides, all the beneficiaries of the previous Saral Scheme and Sambhal Scheme will also eligible in this scheme.

Benefits

Under this scheme, only those families will get the benefit of this scheme who will consume 100 units of electricity then they will have to pay only Rs. 100 / -. if any family consumes more than 100 units of electricity Then they will have to pay for the full consumption at the current rate

Key Factors

- All sections of the society including general classes.
- Each General Electricity Connection holders.
- If the Power consumption is more than 100 units then the consumer needs to pay complete electricity bill at the standard rates.