Announcement of Rs. 5000 Scheme for Birth of Second Girl Child in Chhattisgarh Budget 2021

CM Bhupesh Baghel presented Chhattisgarh Budget 2021 of Rs. 97,106 crore for 2021-22 during the Assembly session. It was to ensure the prosperity of farmers and economically weaker sections in the state while being true to the government's motto of "Gadhbo Nava Chhattisgarh" (create a new Chhattisgarh). CG Budget defines the concept of development through the acronym HEIGHT, where h stands for holistic development, e for education (equal opportunity for all), i for infrastructure, g for governance, h for health and t for transformation. The allocations made in the CG Budget are as follows:-

- Rs. 175 crore for the Godhan Nyay Yojana as a pilot project to buy cow dung from cattle herders and convert it to organic vermicompost. Rs. 80 crore was paid under the scheme and more than 71,000 quintals of vermicompost manufactured by several SHGs in the state.
- Rajiv Gandhi Kisan Nyay Yojana for direct cash transfers to farmers was allotted Rs 5,760 crore, up by Rs. 660 crore from last year when the scheme was launched.
- Industrial parks will be built in rural and urban settings across the state. He also announced 119 new English medium schools, 21 student hostels, 8 colleges, while allotting Rs 372 crore for operation of hostels for SC/ST students.
- The state govt. also announced Rs 300 crore towards setting up three medical colleges.
- Baghel also announced an increase in the pay of 'Swacchata Didis' working in the state.
- Rs. 30 crore in view of reverence and popularity of general public towards Sri Ram Van Gaman Tourism Circuit to give impetus to the identified works.

Among the new schemes in the budget was the Kaushalya Maternity Scheme to incentivize mothers on the birth of a second girl child.
