

Mother Teresa Asahaya Matri Sambal Yojana

Government has initiated the Mother Teresa Asahaya Matri Sambal Yojana to provide financial assistance to widows and destitute women of the state. Under this scheme, the Government provides a sum of Rs. 3000 per year for the beneficiaries to promote the social and economic empowerment of women in the state.

The primary objective of the scheme is to offer financial security to the widows and to bring up their children until 18 years of age. This scheme aims to provide a consistent income source for weaker sections of society and to promote education among children from low-income families.

Eligibility

The eligibility criteria for coverage of beneficiaries under the Mother Teresa Asahaya Matri Sambal Yojana is as follows:

- The Below Poverty Line (BPL) families are eligible for this scheme.
- Widowed women and Divorced women are eligible to apply for this scheme.
- Women whose husbands have been missing for more more than two years can also be benefited under this scheme.
- Income from a woman should not exceed Rs. 35,000 to get the benefits of the scheme.

Benefits

The benefits of obtaining the Mother Teresa Asahaya Matri Sambal Yojana is explained as follows:

The scheme grants benefits in the form of financial assistance to the widows, needy woman and destitute in upbringing their children by providing education till they attain the age of 18 years.

Under this scheme, Government will provide Rs. 3000 per child for two children.

The beneficiaries under this scheme will get the amount in their account at the fixed time frame by the government.

This scheme aims to create sustainable growth of all these people that further helps with improving their standard of living in society.

Key features

- Financial assistance for needy women – This scheme will put focus on the needs of poor and destitute female candidates. They will get a set sum from the authority that will help them to offer better life for children.
- Steady income source – With the implementation of the scheme, the Himachal Pradesh has ensured a steady source of income for the women, who are not financially equipped to run the family smoothly.
- Grant amount – Earlier, the state government was offering Rs. 3000 for every child in the family. Now that amount has been increased to Rs. 6000 on an annual basis.
- Number of children and age – The state government has highlighted that the grants will be given for a women who have maximum of two children and not yet attained the age of 18.
- Better education of children – The money, transferred in the bank account of the mothers will help them to ensure better education of the children.