

Chhattisgarh Mukhyamantri Bal Hriday Suraksha Yojana

From 2008, Chhattisgarh government is providing free treatment under Mukhyamantri Bal Hriday Suraksha Yojana or Chief Minister Child Heart Scheme for children who have heart ailments. This scheme is covering children between the age of 0-15 years. Under Mukhyamantri Bal Hriday Suraksha Yojana, the children from BPL and APL category gets free treatment in nearby hospitals whether the hospital is government aided or private. Till date, over 6,100 children in the state has taken the leverage of scheme so far.

Benefits

The Government would provide some financial support for the treatment of child who is a patient of any heart disease covered under the Bal Hriday Yojana.

- The government would provide up to Rs. 1,30,000 for normal operation of heart.
- Up to Rs. 1,50,000 would be provided for complicated heart operation.
- Rs. 1.80 Lakh to be provided in case of valve replacement.
- This scheme would also provide up to Rs. 50,000 for change the heart stent.
- In addition, some financial assistance will be provided for complicated treatments including pacemaker, change two heart stents etc.
- The amount would be transferred directly into the account of hospital, not to the beneficiary account.
- All the facilities would be provided to patient and their family members in the hospital.
- After the treatment is complete, patient will get transport facility up to the residence from the hospital itself.
- In addition, the patients would also get free 3 times follow – up by hospital staff / doctors after treatment.

Major Heart Diseases Covered Under the Scheme

VSD – Ventricular Septal Defect

ASD – Atrial Septal Defect

TOF – Tetralogy of Fallot

PDA – Patent Ductus Arteriosus

PS – Pulmonary Stenosis

COA – Coarctation of Aorta

RHD with Valvular Disease

Document Requirement

- Children who needs treatment will be marked during the district or block level camp by staff of hospital.
- The candidates can also directly visit the hospital but some document would be required as given below.
- Aadhar card of children is mandatory.
- Ration card of the family is also mandatory.
- If the candidate have not any one or both of above documents, the signature of SDM will be required on the Mukhyamantri Bal Hriday Suraksha Yojana application form.